American Giants Won, 2 To 0, in Pitchers' Duel.

Chicago, July 5.—The Monarchs lost a pitchers' duel here, 0 to 2, to the American Giants in the hardest fought game of the season. Sam Crawford pitched one of the greatest games ever seen here, striking out ten men, but the Monarchs failed to hit at the opportune time. The score by innings:

Monarchs. . . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 1 0
Chicago. . . . . 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 x—2 4 1

Batteries—Crawford and Duncan, Williams and Dixon.

Game played July 5, 1921 at Chicago, IL.
