WELCH TO PLAY AGAINST THE ALL-NATIONS TODAY

"Smoke" Donaldson, hero of many no-hit games, will pitch one of the games of today's double-header for the All-Nations against the Storz at Rourke park.

Harry Welch, who has been training diligently in an attempt to get back in condition for another season of baseball, will be in right field for the Storz for the first time since the season opened.

Mendez, the Cuban star, is no longer with the All-Nations. Jaccobi, a Japanese, is one of the new men with the visitors, who will also play the Storz here Monday.
