DONALDSON WINS TWO GAMES FROM STORZ

Bats in First Contest for Jap Team-mate, and Then Twirls Way to Another Victory.

"Smoke" Donaldson, who couldn't think of leaving Omaha without trimming the Storz, yesterday added two more games to his string of victories.

"Smoke" pitched the All-Nations to one victory and batted in a second victory for Jacobi, a Jap pitcher. The scores were 2 to 1 and 3 to 0.

Jacobi held the brewers to three hits and one run in the first game, which went seven innings. He struck out ten.

Gray held his own against Donaldson, but errors by his teammates lost the game. Donaldson and Mendey will pitch for the All-Nations today while Hayes and McGuire will work for the Storz. The scores:

First game—		R.H.E.
All Nations	0000020	2	5	2
Storz	0000010	1	3	3

Batteries—Jacobi and Snyder, Olson and Hachten.

Second game—		R.H.E.
All Nations	000000300	3	6	1
Storz	000000000	0	6	3

Batteries—Donaldson and Snyder, Gray and Goding.

Yesterday Sallee chucked a mighty clever game for ten innings against the Cubs, then saw his shortstop boot away the game.
