

ALL-NATIONS HERE READY FOR THE STORZ

The All-Nation baseball club arrived in Omaha Thursday morning in their private car, Jeannette, which will be parked at the Union station until the last game of the series with the Storz.

With favorable weather these great teams will open their three-game series Saturday, with "Jap" Jacobi in the box for the All-Nations, and either Gray or Olsen for the Brewers.

Donaldson and Hayes will fight it out in Sunday's game, and Manager Wilkinson will most likely use the crack southpaw again on Monday. Mendez, the Cuban wonder, was sent transportation ten days ago, with orders to report at Omaha for Sunday's game, but up to the present time has not shown up.

The lineup:
