TWO BIG GAMES AT ROURKE PARK TODAY

There will be a mighty congregation of fans at Rourke Park this afternoon to see the double-header between the world's famed All-Nations and the popular Storz team. The All-Nations are a big card whenever they appear, as they have a number of players in their line that have few equals even in the classiest of the major leagues. The two marvels, Donaldson and Jacobi, will do the throwing for the illustrious visitors while Hays and Gray will officiate for the Brewery Speeders. Donaldson, said to be the peer of any pitcher on the diamond today, will pitch against Hays in the opener, and Jacobi, an almost equally great pitcher, against Gray in the closing session. The line-up:
