

ALL-NATIONS HAVE AN EASY TIME WITH STORZ

First Game Ended 2-1, but Second Was Blank for Brewers, With Donaldson Pitching.

Another Double Bill Carded for This Afternoon — "Smoke" to Work on Mound Today.

The All-Nations won a double bill from the Storz at Rourke park Sunday in the presence of a large crowd of fans, mainly attracted by the appearance of Smoke Donaldson, the sensational colored twirler. Scores were 3 to 1 in the first, which went seven innings, while the second ended 3-0.

In the first Olson twirled well enough to win up to the sixth, when he aided his own downfall by passing a man and contributing a wild pitch. Jacobi was air-tight in pinches. The little Jap fanned ten of the Storz while he was on the slab.

Donaldson and Gray had an interesting twirling duel up to the seventh, when fatal miscues by Woodruff and Vanous sent all hopes a glittering.

Two games this afternoon, with Donaldson and Mendez for the All-Nations and Hayes and McGuire for the Storz. First game at 2 o'clock.
