

STORZ TAKE BOTH THE GAMES FROM VISITORS

Mighty Donaldson Falls in Second Encounter and Brewers Score on Hard Hits.

First Game Was Procession After Omahans Get to the Husky Negro Pitcher.

A timely triple by Woodruff in the final inning of the first game, and a bombardment of smoke Donaldson in the second inning of the second game resulted in a double win for the Storz yesterday. Scores, 6 to 5 and 7 to 3.

In the first game McGuire started for the Storz. Two errors, two passes and a hit by Blatner resulted in his retirement. Gray took up the burden and held the All-Nations until the sixth, when they tied up the count.

In the Storz half of the fifth Woodruff hit for two bases with two on, and before the smoke had cleared the Storz had acquired a two-run lead. With the score tied in the last half, Woodruff smashed a triple over Donaldson's head, after two were down, and Vanous hit a fast one to short on which the Jap threw wide to first and Woodruff scampered home with the winning tally.

To Jonny Hayes credit must be given for defeating the Brewers' old foe, Donaldson. Harry Welch started the colored marvel's downfall in the second with a smash to right for two sacks. The Storz then started the procession, after Hayes hit safe and scored two, which resulted in enough runs to win the game.
