

RATS TAKE THE SECOND GAME

DEFEAT T. K. IN CLOSE GAME SIX TO FOUR

KELLY PITCHES GREAT GAME

Although Kelly pitched great ball and had the Rats guessing all of the time, nevertheless the colored gentlemen from Tennessee managed to cross the plate at the final roundup twice more than the Thompson-Kehm team.

The game was an exciting contest and was doubtful as to its outcome up to the third out for Thompson-Kehm in the ninth inning.

The scoring for the home team began in the last of the third. Bostick walked, went second on a wild pitch by Donaldson, Koll hit to short, who made a wild throw to first. Bostick came home. Johnson hit to short, Koll, who was on second, started for third. Short stop throws to third to catch Koll. Koll was safe. Johnson safe on first, attempted to steal second. Donaldson lost his head and threw the ball out in center field. Koll scored.

In the last of the fifth with one out, Kelly walked. Koll hit for two bases and Kelly scored.

The final score for the clothiers came in the last of the eighth. One out. Trost beats out a slow grounder to third. Stole second, came home on Skein's clean single over short.

The score:

Thompson-Kehm.

	AB	R	H	PO	A	E
Koll, 3b	4	1	1	1	0	0
Johnson, ss	4	0	0	1	3	1
Trost, 2b	4	1	0	5	4	2
Anderson, lf	4	0	0	1	0	0
Skein, 1b	4	0	1	10	0	2
Bergman, c	4	0	0	5	3	0
Cox, rf	4	0	0	1	0	0
Bostick cf	2	1	0	3	0	0
Kelly, p	3	1	0	0	2	0

33 4 2 27 12 5

Rats.

	AB	R	H	PO	A	E
Pertell, 2b	4	1	1	1	2	0
Little, 1b	4	1	0	10	0	0
Butler, ss	4	0	0	1	0	0
Lee, lf	4	0	0	0	0	0
Wilson, c	3	0	0	13	2	0
Donaldson, p	3	2	2	0	1	1
Goodall, 3b	3	1	1	0	1	0
Clay, rf	3	0	0	1	0	0
Anderson, cf	3	1	1	1	0	1

31 6 5 27 6 2

Game Info: Game played June 22, 1911. Fort Dodge, IA