

Saturday's game was interesting from start to finish and it was in the latter part of the ninth inning that the winning score was made. Lehigh was able to score in the second, but the score was tied in the fourth. Lehigh got another in the seventh; the Rats followed with one in the eighth, tying the score. Lehigh got one in the ninth and the Rats were unable to score. McClellan made a two bagger and Hobson won his own game by making a nice single. Very few errors were made by either team and a larger crowd witnessed the game than the day previous.
