

Sunday a record breaking crowd saw the Rats everlastingly beat the Lehigh team, and it was easy, too, Donaldson, the southpaw, did the twirling act and he had the best of them guessing. The Lehigh boys never had a glimpse of a show. To make things worse, Lehigh had an off day and during the game more errors were made by the Lehigh boys than in any other game this season. The hoodoo seemed to have left the colored gentlemen and rested on the Lehigh boys, for it was surprising to see the number of errors. Every team, however, has an off day and this was Lehigh's time for sure, Fisher pitched the first five innings and Hobson the last four, but to no avail and coupled with the errors piled up behind them an exceedingly large number of men faced them. Fisher struck out six, Hobson two, while Donaldson had nineteen to his credit. The colored gentlemen secured 10 hits off Fisher and 5 off Hobson and every hit meant a score. The final score was 15 to 0.

Game Info: Game played September 17, 1911. Lehigh, IA