

Johnsons Lose Again.

The All-Nations won their second game from the Johnson Biscuit company club in a fast and interesting game of ten innings. The features of the game were the playing of Carrie on first base and the home run of Macklum, which scored two runs.

Score by innings:

													R. H. E.
0	Johnsons	0	0	0	0	0	2	0	1	0	0	—3 7 2
0	All-Nations	0	0	1	0	1	0	1	0	0	1	—4 12 2
1	Batteries—Johnsons: Hinkley and Coan;
1	All-Nations: Dunbar, Means and Reeves.

Game played May 19, 1912. Sioux City, IA