

Company E, the local militia, contested for baseball honors with the "All Nations" ball team on Monday evening at the Fair grounds, with the result that the latter players were victorious by a score of 11 to 9.

Game played May 20, 1912. Sheldon, IA