

Yesterday a pretty pitchers battle was staged between Gaspar and Donaldson, when the All Nations took the locals into camp by a 1 to 0 score. A big crowd was on hand despite the heavy clouds and muddy roads.

Neither side was able to hit the ball at critical times until the first half of the ninth inning, when Geo. Chief Walla, the heavy hitting Indian of the visitors slammed the ball against the left field fence for a two bagger, with one man on base. This was the only tally registered during the game.

Donaldson, the black pitcher, who last year held the locals to 1 hit, proved to be as good a pitcher as ever, allowing but two hits and striking out fourteen. He was invincible at critical times, his twisters holding the batters helpless. Gaspar, also pitched a good game, allowing but three hits and striking out fifteen. He was particularly stingy at the dangerous moments, striking out men when a hit would have meant one or more scores.

But one opportunity was offered for LeMars to score, that coming in the last of the third after two men were down. Gaspar singled and went to third base on a pretty single by Nelson. Donaldson then lightened and laid three fast one over the center of the plate which were too smoky for Striegel to see. After this frame the locals never had a chance.
