

of 3 to 0. In the Monday game the great Donaldson started for the visitors and after pitching four innings holding the locals to no scores it was thought that Mendez or one of the other pitchers would be able to hold the locals. In this "thought" the visitors made a big mistake as the locals "hopped to" Mendez in great shape and drove him out of the box. The game was all in favor of Sioux Falls and was finally won by a score of 8 to 1.
