

The Negro in Sports By Edwin Bancroft Henderson – 1939 p.157

Some of the players in professional circles who will go down in history as all-time immortals in baseball's hall of fame are the following:

Pitchers: Joseph Williams, Richard Redding, David Brown, Rube Foster, William Foster and Satchel Paige

Others deserving honorable mention are:

Pitchers: Andrew "Stringbean" Williams, Frank Wickware, "Bullet" Rogan, John Donaldson.

