

Fall Shoes and Oxfords are all in. Our line is very complete, and we can fit any member of the family. Not how cheap, but the best for the money is our motto. Come and see our line.

Ladies Kid Oxfords	$2.75 to	$5.00
Ladies Brown Oxfords	3.50 to	5.00
Ladies Satin Pumps	4.00 to	5.50
Men's Work Shoes	3.25 to	4.50
Men's Dress Shoes	4.00 to	6.50

Honest made shoes at right prices.

Good things to eat. Home and Bengal canned goods always on hand, nothing better put up, and prices are reasonable.

Home Jell	10c
Home 1 pound Jams	35c
Home 5 pound Jams in pails	$1.50
Home Mince Meat	18c
Home Corm	20c
Home Peas	30c
Home 10 oz. Macaroni	13c
Home Spices	10c to 15c
Home Milk	8c and 13c
Home Salad Mustard	20c
Home Salmon, half pound	25c
Home Asparagus	45c
Home Coffee	50c
Home Wheat Food	25c

Highest prices for eggs and poultry

Yours for Business, M. O. SKUTLE

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Winnebago County Fair at Forest City next week.

M. V. Secor was here from Clear Lake the first of the week on business.

Mrs. Wm. Walton returned yesterday morning from a visit with relatives at Traer.

Albert Yahuke was up from Klemme this week helping with the threshing on his farm.

The H. G. Wessels family had as their guests over Sunday, the Rev. and Mrs. D. H. Middents of Waterloo.

Willis Sims came up from Boone, Iowa, Thursday of last week and spent a few days here visiting with friends.

Don't miss seeing John Donaldson pitch ball at Hand's Park next Sunday. He is the greatest pitcher the world ever knew.

Emma and Adeline Gutsch of Viroqua, Wis., will arrive this week for a visit at the J. W. Frey home. They are nieces of Mrs. Frey.

The Ladies Aid of the Lutheran church will hold a baked food sale at Wilson's Store, Saturday afternoon, August 18, beginning at three o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Steiler and daughter Pearl and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Fier attended the funeral of Mr. Steiler's aunt which was held at Belmont Tuesday.

If you want to see as good ball players as there are in the Big Leagues go to Hand's Park next Sunday. The only reason they are not in the big show is because they are colored. Both teams have colored players.

The "Ninety And Nine", a big vaudeville special and a late release at the Regent Theatre next Friday and Saturday, August 17 and 18th and at the World's Theatre, Lakota, Iowa on Sunday and Monday, the 19th and 20th with special music. Admission 10 and 35 cents.

Mrs. H. B. Hum and Mrs. Ed. Smith are enjoying a visit from their father, O. B. Gillham and cousin, Miss Anna Riggen of Troy, Ill., and their uncle, E. M. Case of Buckeye. Mr. Gillham is 81 years young and Mr. Case is 91 years and made the trip here by motor.

Mr. and Mrs. Harm Nordman and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heitland motored over to Ackley last week to visit relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Nordman also visited at Alden, returning home Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Heitland remained over until Tuesday. They were accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. Dick Nordman of Ackley who are visiting in this city.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Potter, Sunday, August 5th.

Mrs. M. O. Skutle entertained the Lutheran aid society at her home yesterday afternoon.

H. P. Engen and family, Ruth and Ruby Kramer camped at Amber Lake Minnesota the week end.

Mrs. Wm. Stone and Miss Marian Burg of Minneapolis arrived Saturday for a visit at the Tom Grimsley home.

WE pay highest cash price for cream, eggs and poultry. Office next door north of J. F. Buggy's.—Fred Miller.

Mrs. H. D. Thorn returned Monday morning to her home in Cedar Rapids following a ten days stay in the Theo Albers home.

Sheriff Swenson and County Attorney Osmundson were here from Forest City the first of the week on legal business.

Leonard, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Mitterer submitted to an operation for the removal of tonsils and adenoids the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Petzke and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sharp of Clear Lake were guests Wednesday in the H. E. Hum home. Mrs. Sharp is a cousin to Mrs. Hum.

Put a young man without training up against an obstacle and he flat tenns like a pancake. Don't stay half baked, but attend Mankato Commercial College, Mankato, Minn.

Art Olson was on the mound for Lakota last Sunday in a ball game against the Estherville team. While we did not see the game we understand that Art did the job right by striking out nineteen men and winning the game five to nothing.

Jake Hovestem was overcome by the heat Saturday while threshing. A doctor was summoned and he was soon brought to again. We understand Saturday was one of the hottest days of the summer, the thermometer hovered around the hundred mark in the shade.

The boy scouts and their scoutmaster, F. G. Bliss returned Tuesday from a several days stay at Hand's Park. Mrs. Bliss and little son were also with them during their outing. Marian Guyer and F.W. Woodcock motored over to the park Tuesday to drive them home.

The C. A. Sparks family returned Tuesday from a visit with Mr. Sparks' brother, A. J. Sparks and family at Lakefield, Minn. Misses Ruth Sparks and Fleeda Smalley of Lakefield accompanied them home and are guests in the Sparks home. Mrs. A. A. Sparks, who had been spending the summer here at the home of her son remained at Lakefield for a longer visit with her other son.

Mrs. Theo. Albers is reported to be improving.

A son was born last week to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Tollokson northeast of town.

Dorothy and Robert Hardin are visiting their father, C. E. Hardin at Fort Dodge this week.

Miss Lena TerVeem came up from Des Moines Friday for an over Sunday visit at her parental home.

Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Fearnite motored over to Budd Sunday to visit their daughter, Mrs. Wm. Pross and family.

Mrs. Jerry Schoon who has been spending several weeks with her parents at Arnold's Park returned home Tuesday evening.

Gasoline took a big drop in Buffalo Center the first of the week and is now selling at 14 1-2 and 16 1-2 cents per gallon.

BUY COAL NOW, We have it—Hansberg Egg and Kentucky Block there is none better—Midwest Lumber Co., J. J. Kopp, Mgr.

Ladies' and Gents' Garments, Fur Coats, Overcoats and Suits relined; also alterations, cleaning and repairing done with care—M. A. Johnson.

As per communication from the Post Office Department the Post Office will observe the following hours beginning Monday, August 20th. The following hours will be observed: Opening at 8:00 A. M. Close at 6:00 P. M.—Glen D. Curtis, P. M.

Many people dig their graves with their teeth. Constipation is the greatest curse of the day. Stagnant decayed matter in the stomach and bowels may cause serious trouble. Take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea for constipation—Results guaranteed—Snell's Pharmacy.

Mrs. O. L. Price and little daughter started Monday for their home in Cayuga, N. D., following a ten days visit in Buffalo Center. En route they will visit her sister and brother at Terril and Superior, Iowa and also with the James Price family at Lake Park.

A motor party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Hook, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Albert, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Lubbin and Miss Rosalie Winkelman left the first of the week for Elgin, Iowa, to attend the state Baptist church convention.

Last Saturday evening about eighty people gathered on the M. E. Parsonage lawn for a social time with Rev. and Mrs. N. Batchelor. A short musical program was given after which ice cream and cake was served. On behalf of the congregation, Harm Shortenhaus presented the happy young couple with a dozen silver spoons and a beautiful leather rocking chair.

Mrs. Harm Dreyer of Aplington is a guest in the H. D. Feldick home.

Mr. and Mrs. Loran Cady of Fort Dodge visited here Sunday with home folks.

Don't fail to attend the Lutheran ladies baked food sale at Wilson's store next Saturday, August 18.

Misses Lois Hum and Ava Simpson returned Tuesday from a weeks stay at the latter's home in Whittemore.

Beauty of face appeals to the eye, while beauty of soul enralls the heart. No wonder we are heart and soul for the women.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Feldick enjoyed a visit from her brother, A. Broers wife and daughter, Jessie of Westbrook, Minn. They returned Tuesday morning.

The Ladies Aid of the Congregational church will meet to-day (Thursday) of this week in the church basement at 2 o'clock with Mrs. W. G. Bond as hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Havnen and daughter Dorothy and Mae Pomeroy left last week for Des Moines to visit their sister, Mrs. Harry Granow and brother Bill of that place.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Johnson went Friday to Colter, Iowa, where they visited over Sunday with Mr. Johnson's brother and family. Enroute home they visited their daughter, Mrs. L. R. Melcher and family at Garner returning home Tuesday.

A large number from here attended the Indian Day celebration at Titonka yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Schlamp of Ackley, Iowa were guests in the Rollin Steinmetz home Tuesday night.

The ladies aid society of the M. E. church will meet at the home of Mrs. Gail Butterfield Thursday, afternoon, August 23.

Martin Thompson sustained broken leg and a deep cut in his face while trying to crank a tractor on his farm one day last week.

Misses Rita McDermott and Then Olson are guests in the home of the former's sister, Mrs. E. J. Reilly at Hokiah, Minnesota. They expect to return the latter part of the week.

The young peoples' society of the Baptist church enjoyed a weiner roast and social hour at the Dick Winter home Friday evening at which the Reverend F. Minrup and family were the honored guests. Following the weiner-roast other refreshments were served during the social hour.

Mrs. R. G. Bruns and daughter, Olive, who have been with Mr. Bruns who has been hauling gravel in northern Iowa and South Dakota, this summer, arrived home Monday morning and will stay here. Miss Olive, who had not been feeling well for some time, became worse Sunday with an attack of appendicitis and was brought home where she could receive better care and at present she is feeling somewhat better.

Miss Pauline Annett of Spencer, arrived Monday for a visit with her friend, Marian Guyer.

Get your winter supply of coal while getting is good. We handle only the best.—Midwest Lumber Co., J. J. Kopp, Mgr.

U. H. Winter suffered a fractured arm one day last week caused by a falling tree which he was cutting down on his farm yard.

Bernie Steinberg is enjoying a weeks vacation from his work at Barron's store. He and Sam Schuler left Monday for Clear Lake and Mason City.

Miss Clara Johnson returned Wednesday from an extended visit at Waterton, S. D., and at various points in Minnesota. The last week she spent in the twin cities studying the new styles in the millinery line.

Miss Gertrude Dreesman, who is at the Oakdale sanitarium for tubercular treatment is enjoying a six days leave from the hospital which she is spending here with relatives and friends.

A wedding of interest to relatives and friends here is that of Miss Grace Meyer of Titonka and Mr. Fred Ites of Lakota. The wedding ceremony was read by the Rev. Jasper Schmidt of Blue Earth on Thursday, Aug. 2nd. The groom is a son of Mrs. Harm Nordman of this city. The young people will make their home on a farm near Lakota.

"The Recollection of QUALITY Remains Long After the PRICE is Forgotten."

GOOD TOOLS

A cheap tool is a bad investment because it does not give satisfaction and is soon worthless.

KEEN KUTTER Tools of all kinds, Pocket Knives, Razors, Scissors, Shears and Table Cutlery are the best that money and skill can produce.

H. A. WAGNER