Packers Scalp Indians in First Game of Series, Winning 4

SIOUX BLANK THE SOONERS I

MATTICK'S HOMER IS ONLY EARNED RUN OF GAME.

ROETTGER IS IN GREAT FORM

Visitors Allowed but Three Hits-Only One of Their Men Gets to Third-Erratic Fielding of Oklas Permits Three Scores.

Hostiger was at his best Wednesday, holding the Sooners to three scattered hits, while the Packers coupled their blows with the errors behind Brady, and won the first game of the series by a acore of 4 to D.

Mattick's schoolboy curve artist was never in serious trouble, his stingmess with his and the Packer fielding permitting but one of the Oklas to reach third in the entire nine frames. Roettger walked six to first, but made up for it by sending seven of the Oklahoma slug-gers away from the plate via the strike out route.

Brady hurled a fine game for the visitors, Mattick's homer in the seventh accounting for the only carned run of the game. Erratic fielding allowed three other Packer runners to cross the plate.
The big slabsman of the Indians forced the Slowy butters to bit late learn depths the Sloux batters to hit into casy double plays three times when things looked good for Sloux City scores. Hamilton started the fireworks in the first by pounding out a sharp single to the rightfield fence, Hemingway walked and Eish was safe at first on Brady's error. Metz then hit into a double play, Hamilton scoring.

Ostergard Scores.

Ontergard opened the fourth by walking. Robinson sacrificed, but was safe on Tate's overthrow of first. Palmer was safe at first when Pitt dropped an easy fly ball, Ostergard scoring. Query fanned and Roetteer forced Robinson. fly ball. Ostergard scoring. Query fanned and Roettger forced Robinson at second. Another run was made in the fifth. Hemingway was safe at first when Felber juggled his grounder. Eish sent him to second on a sacrifice, and he scored later on Meiz' double to center. Mattick was the first up in the seventh inning and picked Brady's first offering to clout over the left field fence for a homer.

The Sooners threatened only in the ninth inning. Felber walked and Me-Daniel sent a Texas leaguer to center. Long then drove to Hamilton, who threw Palmer, getting McDaniel at second. and the throw to Metz beat Long to first. Robinson then picked Windle's fly to off the fence and the game was
