Maroon Basketeers Defeat Creighton Quint, 26 to 22

GREAT VICTORY FOR M. S. QUINT

Hauff Stars as Wenig's Team Upsets the Dope Bucket.

Omaha, Neb., Feb. 20.—Special: A smooth running attack that made use of every chance to score with brilliant accuracy gave the Morningside college victory over Creighton's varsity, 26 to 22, here tonight and brought to an abrupt halt the return to form which Creighton had started recently be defeating Nebraska and Kansas Aggies.

The Omaha machine was sluggish from the start and the flashy Sioux City forwards, led by Hauff, swung into an early lead that was maintained throughout. Occasional bursts of form emanated from the Omaha team's camp, but Morningside's defense was strong enough to rush Creighton's shooting at every range and Creighton's shooting was poor enough to make it oftentimes unnecessary.

Hauff led the scoring, with four field goals and mixed in every Morningside attack.

Means, Peterson and Bastian were also effective at the hoop and navigated well on offensive. Diesing was Creighton's most effective scorer and Brown strongest on the floor in the Blues' short rallies. The lineup and summary.

Morningside (26).		Creighton (22).
Hauff	F	Ryan
Bastian	F	Brown
Means	C	Deising
Beha	G	Van Citters
Haley	G	Hanger

Scoring: Field goals—Ryan, 2; Brown; Deising, 3; Koudele (sub for Beha); Haley, 2; Hauff, 4; Peterson (sub for Hauff), 2; Bastian, 2; Means, 2; Hanger, 2. Free throws—Beha; Means, 2; Hanger, 2. Referee—Edmonds (Ottawa Normal).

EXPECT A BIG ENTRY LIST AT PIERRE RELAYS

Pierre, S. D., Feb. 20.—Special: From the present indications the entry list for the Pierre legion relays to be held at Pierre on April 23 will be practically double that of last year.

Only five of the 21 teams competing in 1925 have failed to indicate a probability of attendance this spring and in addition to this there are returns from 11 new schools, including several of the larger high schools in the state. Another of interest is the entry of Flandreau, Pierre and Rapid City Indian schools and the probability that St. Francis Mission, of Mission, also will compete. This latter school, it will be remembered, pulled a great publicity stunt at the Catholic school basketball meet at Chicago last year when it paraded Chicago streets in full Sioux regalia.

That the Indians are amply able to hold up their own in such company is attested by the records of McLean's Sioux Braves in prior meets. In 1924 they took 18 points for fourth place and placed in seven of 10 events while in 1925 they tied with Tyndall for fourth with seven points and took second in the mile and third in the two-mile relays. McLean, whose Indian name when a Carlisle star was "Afraid of a Bear," insists that he has a quartet of quarter-milers the slowest of whom can cut 57 seconds If that is so, and they hold their speed to April 23, there seems a decided likelihood of a new record.

Chicago Coliseum Is Leased for Ice Games

Chicago, Feb. 20.—(AP)—A 15-year lease on the Coliseum, meeting place of national conventions and scene of man yexpositions and sports events, was announced today as a preliminary move toward extensive promotion of ice hockey in the middle west and east next winter. The lease calls for a schedule of 20 games to be played in the Coliseum. The project is being financed by New York and middle western interests.

Buckeye Five Noses Out Michigan, 32-31

Columbus, O., Feb. 20.—(AP)—Ohio State sank Michigan in a desperately contested Western conference basketball game here tonight, 32 to 31. Going into the final period on the short end of a 10 to 18 score, Ohio State quickly took a seven-point lead. Michigan then jammed through to within one point of Ohio's total, and was attempting to break through a tight Ohio defense when the game ended.

Suzanne Still Is Favorite to Win

New York, Feb. 20.—Wall street still considers Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen a favorite to defeat Helen Wills the next time the two women tennis rivals step in the court. One Wall street firm announced today that it had placed a wager of $2,000 against $4,000 that Miss Wills wins from the French champion at the next meeting. The same firm announced that it has $2,500 more to place against $5,000 the same way. On the recent meeting this firm wagered $2,000 against $4,500 that Helen Wills would win. Despite her good showing the odds have dropped only a little.

COYOTE CAGERS DEFEAT STATE

Turn Tables on Rabbit Quint by Margin of 22 to 18.

Brookings, S. D., Feb. 20.—Special: South Dakota university piled up a big advantage in the opening period to win its first victory over the State Jackrabbits here tonght. The recess found the Rabbits trailing, 17 to 7, and the end of the tussle found them still in the ruck, 2 to 18. The Coyotes counted nine field goals to eight for the Westmen and counted four of 11 free throws to two and seven for the Bunnies, for their margin of victory. Berg, State forward, proved the scoring sensation of the game caging the apple four times in less than 15 minutes of play. Seeley, at back guard, was the big obstacle which the Coyotes were forced to surmount in order to gain their victory. The big guard was all over the floor covering his man and intercepting passing throughout the game.

After trailing at half time, the Bunnies started the second period with a rush bringing the count up to 12 to 17 in the opening five minutes of the period. A Coyote rally stopped the scoring and for the next eight minutes each quint contented itself with a lone counter. Then Berg got hot and tossed the apple into the net three times in as many minutes, while Welchs' free throw was discounted when Ekern stepped into the circle.

Capt. Hinman led his mates, brilliantly working the floor and caging the sphere twice in addition on short shots. Redfield also played nice ball for the Coyotes and with Running, tied for team scoring honors with five points. The Coyote victory evens the series which will be finished at Vermillion on March 8 and 9. The lineup and summary:

University (22)	Pos.	State (18)
Deklotz	F	Sorbel
Running	F	Berg
Redfield	C	Ekern
Hinman	G	Welch
Zellhoefer	G	Seeley

Scoring: Field goals—Berg, 4; Ekern, 2; Cornell (sub for Ekern); Welch; Deklotz, 2; Running, 2; Hinman, 2; Leonard (sub for Hinman). Free throws—Sorbel; Seeley; Running; Redfield; Crill (sub for Redfield); Leonard.

Referee—Thompson (Drake).

Columbus in Victory Over Springfield, 44-16

Sioux Falls, S. D., Feb. 20.—Special: In a listless game here tonight, the Columbus Mariners easily defeated Southern Normal, of Springfield, 44 to 16. The score at the half was 20 to 11. Coach Kasper used 13 men, two of them for the first time this season in a conference game.

Capt. Baillie shared honors in the scoring. The defensive work of Schrunk and N. O'Leary featured the contest. Pung, 200-pound forward, was easily the offensive star for the visitors, while Capt. Hubner played a fine floor game. The lineup and summary:

Columbus (44)	Pos.	Southern (16)
Bader	F	Hubner
J. O'Leary	F	Pung
Murphy	C	Paulson
Baillie	G	Carpenter
N. O'Leary	G	Waugh

Scoring: Field goals—Hubner, 2; Pung, 2; Waugh; Bader; J. O'Leary; Schrank (sub for J. O'Leary), 2; Murphy, 9; Weisandt (sub for Murphy); Baillie. Free throws—Hubner; Pung, 3; Paulson; Carpenter; Bader; J. O'Leary, 4; Murphy, 6; Schrunk, 2; Weisandt; Baillie, 3; N. O'Leary.

Referee—Galyin (St. Viators).

Quebec Musher Victor in International Derby

Quebec, Feb. 20.—(AP)—Frank Dupuis, Quebec, this afternoon won the three-day Quebec Eastern International dog derby in the time of 12:28:10. Second place went to Sherty Russick, Chicago, in 13:42:05.

HAWKEYES NOSE OUT 12-11 WIN

Hold Lead Over Northwestern Five Until Final Gun.

Iowa City, Ia., Feb. 20.—(AP)—The University of Iowa cage team defeated Northwestern here tonight in a hard fought battle by the low score of 12 to 11. The Hawkeyes held the Wildcats to a few shots in the first half, but were unable to connect with the basket themselves. The half ended 9 to 5 in favor of Lowa.

In the second half Iowa managed to make three free throws which enabled them to hold their fast dwindling lead until the final gun.

White, of Northwestern, was high point man with six points. His teammate, Fisher, fell a victim of Capt. McConnell's close guarding and scored but two free throws. Miller, Hawkeye center, was ejecte dfrom the contest on personal fowls. The lineup and summary:

Iowa (12)		Pos.	N'western (11)
Van Duesen		F	Rusch
Harlson		F	White
Miller		C	Fisher
Hogan		G	Christman
McConnell (c)		G	(c) Mathews

Scoring: Field goals—Van Duesen; Phillips (sub for Harlson); Miller; McConnell; Rusch; White, 2. Free throws—Van Duesen, 2; Phillips, 2; White, 2; Christman; Quinter (sub for Mathews), 2.

Referee—Schommer (Chicago); Umpire—Lohman (Wisconsin).

CORPUS CHRISTI TEAM NEXT FOE FOR PREP QUINT

Having successfully cleared the hurdle presented by the strong Varina quintet, the Trinity preps are preparing for another hard game, this time with the powerful Corpus Christi high school five of Fort Dodge, Monday night. This game promises to be just as tough as the Varina tilt and it will be doubly tough for the Little Irish as it will be played in the new K. of C. gymnasium as a curtain raiser to the Trinity-Yankton game.

Corpus Christi was runner-up in the tournament held at Trinity last year and the team handed the Varina five a 17-14 defeat lately, one of the two black marks chalked against the Varina record. The Trinity preps, by virtue of their 18-16 win over Varina, might be placed on a par with the Corpus Christi outfit and for that reason the game should be fast and interesting.

Since their victory over the A. S. L. fraternity and their string of wins over other fives, the Trinity preps have created a decided ripple in the prep circles of this section. Possessing a powerful three-man offense, Brennan, Benton and McMahon, and a pair of guards, Capt. Rickord and Connerly, who can keep the rear court cleared, thus forcing opponents to shoot from the middle of the floor, the Little Irish have one of the smoothest working machines in this section in several years.

TWO NEW WORLD'S RECORDS HUNG UP IN ICE TOURNEY

Toronto, Feb. 20.—Two world records were broken at the National speed skating championships here today. Charles Jewtraw, Lake Placid, N. Y., did 150 yards in 14.4 seconds, one second faster that the best previous mark.

Miss Lelia Brooks, of Toronto, woman champion of the world, broke the one-mile record, covering the eight laps in 3 minutes 31.6 seconds. The best previous time was 3 minutes 36.6 seconds.

Re-Elect Raine Head of International Pin Loop

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 20.—(AP)—James G. Raine, of Minneapolis, was re-elected president of the International Bowling association at its annual meeting here today.

Matt Blau, of Milwaukee, was elevated to the first vice presidency to fill the vacancy caused by the death of D. A. Luby, and Mort Luby was elected second vice president.

Ted J. Gronewald, of St. Paul, was re-elected secretary for the 18th consecutive year.

It was decided at the meeting to alternate the tournament between the Twin cities.

Kansas Takes Lead in Valley Basket Race

Norman, Okla., Feb. 20.—The University of Kansas went into the lead in the Missouri Valley basketball race here today by defeating the University of Oklahoma, 29 to 21. The Sooners led, 14 to 13, at the half, but their defense cracked in the second half.

Oklahoma must win its one remaining game with the Oklahoma Aggies and Kansas must lose one of her remaining four games for the Oklahomans to tie for the championship.

Kutsch Is Out for Iowa Baseball Team

Iowa City, Ia., Feb. 20.—Special: Alex Kutsch, who was a sensation on the Iowa football team last season as an end, has reported for baseball. He hopes to hold down a place on the infield.

Play Here Monday Night

Capt. G. Warden. C. Steinbach.

Yankton college's basketball team, which meets the Trinity five in the new K. of C. gymnasium Monday night, includes a host of stars but two of the foremost of them are Capt. Guy Warden, guard, and Clifford Steinbach, forward; Warden is playing his second year of intercollegiate basketball and is the king pin both in offensive and defensive play. He was a member of the Yankton high school five which was runnerup in the national meet at Chicago in 1924, and was chosen as all-American guard in his last year as a high school star. Steinbach is another former Yankton high star and the smallest man on the team. He is one of the leading scorers in the Dakota circuit.

Managers Meeting All Trains in Search of Competent Heavyweight

No Dempseys Have Been Picked Up as Yet, However.

By Westbrook Pegler.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

New York, Feb. 20.—The search for a 200-pound fist fighter who can keep his fists up and his heels down is still being prosecuted by a patient corps of fight managers and they continue to meet all freight trains in the various New York yards, forcing their best cards into the hands of the larger al-fresco tourists when they dismount from the brake beams. The freight yard has been a favorite resorting ground for havyweights ever since it became known that Jack Dempsey used to travel informally.

Mr. Will McCarney, Mr. Charles Harvey and Mr. Dan Morgan have never ceased to reproach themselves because they were not on hand to welcome Mr. Dempsey in those days and to underwrite a liberal issue of sausage and cakes on his behalf. Of course, nobody knew at that time that the humble box car passenger had anything more to recommend him than a discriminating knowledge of the various materials used in making road beds. To them, it was unimportant, if true, that the rock ballast might fly up and knock a tourist's nose off, whereas the cinders merely sifted down the neck of one's sweater and caused, at the worst, mild discomfort.

They had no way of knowing that in 10 years Jack Dempsey would be rich enough to have a nose made to measure and to uplift the same in a disdainful manner when offered $500,000.

Won't Happen Again.

The fight managers are determined, however, that this shall never happen again. If another Dempsey comes to town he will be met. Of course, this process involves a great waste of hospitality or hundreds of tons of heavyweights have been welcomed to the city in the last few years and there is an appalling loss of sausage and cakes whenever one of the big seasonal migratory movements is on. If all the sausage and cakes that Mr. McCarney, alone, has bought in the last few years were assembled in the Yale bowl, you'd say "Gee! Look at all the sausage and cakes!"

Just off hand, this correspondent can mumble the names of a couple of tons of heavyweights who were not allowed to arrive ungreeted. There were the Messrs. Floyd Johnson, Romero Rojas, Tiny Herman, Joe McCann, young Jack McAuliffe, Italian Jack Herman, King Solomon, Bud Gorman, Ray Neuman, Jack Burke, Martin Burke, Jim Maloney, Jack Renault and Eddie Huffman, all of Caucasian persuasion, and the Messrs. Tut Jackson, Bob Lawson, Will Tate and George Godfrey, whom Mr. Will Gibson, the educated fight manager, calls Sambogambians.

Take All Candidates.

The champion oyster opener may spend a lifetime prying open the front doors of reluctant bivalves and never find a pearl and, similarly, a fight manager may have a tremendous turnover in heavyweights and never find one who can knock a derby off a hatrack. Since Dempsey became champion, and especially since he invested in a suet sneezer, the managers have accepted candidates from the football field, the legal profession, the rum running profession and even from the wrestling, profession, which is a low profession. And, the end of the search is far from yet, because thus far, nobody has found a fist fighter who can lick Gene Tunney, to say nothing of Harry Wills, or Dempsey.

Sully Montgomery, of the Center college football team, that beat Harvard, came up, fought a few of his contemporaries, and vanished. Ed Garvey, a member of the bar who had played football at Notre Dame, had a similar experience. Lately, Dan Hickey, manager of Paul Berlenbach, put his brand on a big brother of the famous "Big" Munn, the Nebraska football player who once threw Strangler Lewis clear out of the building in a wrestling match and won the so called world championship. This big brother of "Big" Munn is known as "Great Big" Munn and Mr. Hickey says that he will send him into the ring as soon as he learns rudimentary ring manners. Great Big Munn already has learned to say "I broke my hand in the second round," which is lesson one, in the text book.

Eddie Huffman, an alumnus of the Pacific fleet, boxed Jack Sharkey, of Boston, the other night and for some reason, Sharkey refused to knock him out. Sharkey seems to have developed into a competent fist fighter and he is probably the best of the numerous heavyweights comprising the ming class and may shortly be accepted in to that rather exclusive group of near challengers, now composed of Tunney Wills, Stribling, Paul Berlenbach and Johnny Risko.

Hunn, of Iowa, Is Olympic Prospect

Iowa City, Ia., Feb. 20.—Special: A likely prospect for the American Olympic team of 1928 is Leonard Hunn, University of Iowa sophomore two miler. He will finish his intercollegiate competition in the spring of that year.

Hunn already has made better indoor time for the two-mile than did Harold Phelps, of Iowa, one of the four Americans who raced in the 5,000 meter run at the 1924 Olympiad.

SALEM ACCEPTS DEFEAT.

Salem, S. D., Feb. 20.—Special: Realizing the Salem high school basketball aggregation recently was rejected from the latter team defeated the Salem seconds, but Chancellor claims it was the regulars that went down to defeat. Two years of high school basketball experience upon the part of each player is demanded upon the part of each player is demanded upon the part of each player is demanded
