Alexander Gets Even in First Game of Twin Bill

DOWNS FORMER MATES, 3 TO 2

Blake Allows Cards One Hit as Cubs Capture Afterpiece, 5-0.

St. Louis, June 27.—Chicago and St. Louis split a double bill here today, the Cardinals winning the first game, 3 to 2, and the Cubs the second, 5 to 0. Grover Cleveland Alexander, recently released by the Cubs, held his former teammates to four hits in the opener. The locals were helpless before the pitching of Blake in the second, getting but one hit.

A record crowd of 37,000 persons attended the games. Scores:

Coan Shuts Out Alton Club in Hurling Duel

Heinie Coan won his eighth straight game Sunday when he pitched the Leeds club to a 1 to 0 victory over Alton on the Leeds diamond. It was one of the best games of the season, each pitcher allowing five hits.

The winning run was made in the eighth inning on two singles and two stolen bases. Leeds will play the Ghosts Tuesday at Stock Yards park. It is considered probable that several places of business in Leeds will close during the game, which is one of the high spots in the Leeds' schedule.

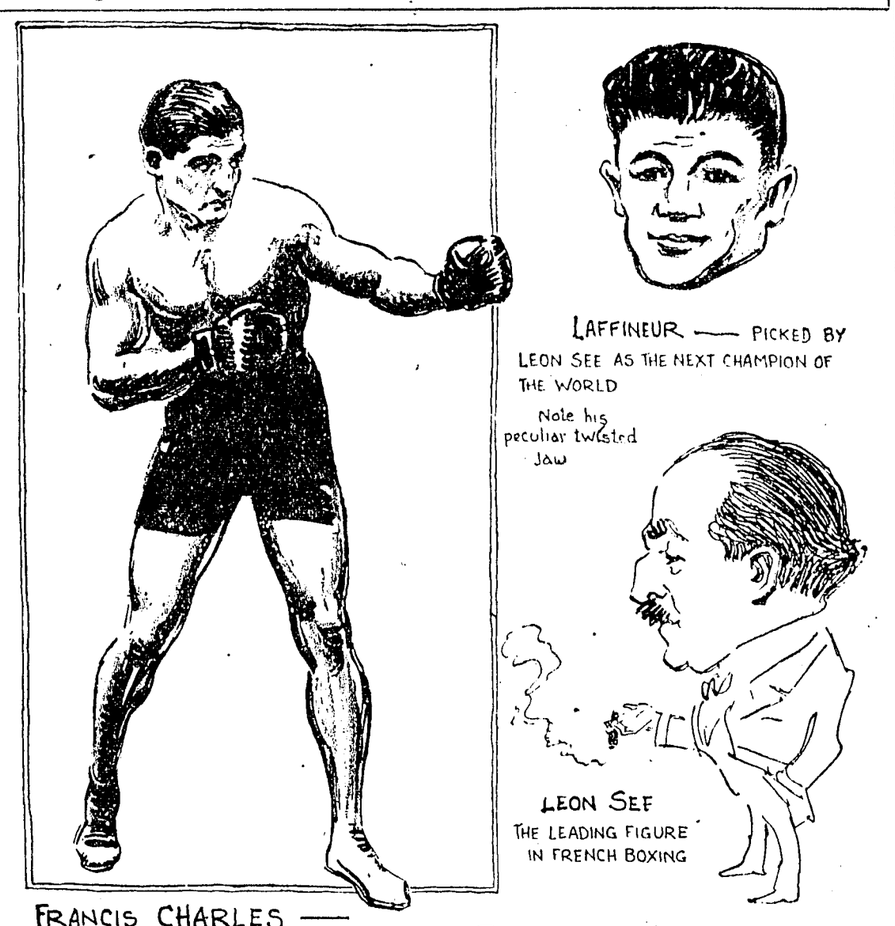
Boxing in France ---By Ripley



By Robert L. Rippley.

Paris, June 12.—Boxing like the franc—is low in france.

"C'st le guerre."

France has not produced a boxer of any ability since the war. The war took its terrible toll of talent, and the subsequent fall of the franc has made the game a poor one. Twenty-seven per cent of the gross receipts go to the government in taxes.

Today, the only two ringmen of any acount are Carpentier, the fading orchid man, and Francis Charles, the light heavyweight champion of Europe, both pre-war products.

Criqui and Ledoux Wealthy.

Criqui and Ledoux are retired. Both are wealthy. Criqui is now a manager of boxers, while Ledoux is a gentleman farmer and municipal councilor of his home town; Pouges les Eaux. De Ponthieu lost an arm and is now a promoter in Casablanca, Maroc. Papin is teaching boxing. Paul Til just died. Piet and Lacroix were lost on the battle field.

Carpentier, as you know, is making his last stand in his harvest land—Les Etats Unis. The Gorgeous, contrary to popular belief in our country, is not a rich man, despite the huge fortunes that he has carried across the sea.

Georges Pet of Society.

Georges—handsome and debonair always—became the pet of society and the rich, sporting, nobility of England, including the prince of Wales. He squandered his purses living the pace. Country estates, three motor cars, a retinue of servants, and seasons at St. Moritz, Deauville, and other fashionable resorts have cut deeply into his fortune.

The champion of Europe is Paolino, the wood chopper of the Basque country, whom Carpentier has been boosting so much in America. But he will sing his praises no longer, for Paolino has quit Descamps and Carp and is now on the ocean rolling down to Rio and B. A., where he is to fight our old friend Firpo. And under the management of Mons. Artus. If successful, Paolino will come to America.

Office Boy to Champion.

Francis Charles was an office boy in the office of La Boxe et les Boreurs, a famous boxing magazine edited by my good friend Leon See. Monsieur See made a champion out of Francis. In fact, Mons. See made him flyweight, bantamweight, lightweight, welterweight, middleweight, and—at present—light heavyweight champion of France. Mem choses, Carpentier.

Francis Charles is coming to America the first week in July to box Dave Shade. Look him over, and remember! He is the best they have over here.

Leon See, the man who first acclaimed Carpentier and prophesied his future as a world's champion, has for the first time since that day found another fighter worthy of his prophetic powers.

Mons. See predicts that Yvan Laffineur will win the welterweight championship of the world. "Another Carpentier," says See. "He has everything that Capentier had and more. Mark my words!"

After looking Yvan Laffineur over, I am sorry to say that I cannot agree with my good friend See. Laffineur has had only 15 battles the has boxed two draws with Romerio, the champion, but he looks as though he had fought a hundred. He is battered all out of shape already.

Badly Off Pugilistically.

France is badly off pugilistically. In fact, the only man who has nerve enough to promote fights over here is an American, Jeff Dickson, who has all of the available arenas under his control—the Gaumont, Wagram, Cirqe d'Hiver; and the "Vel'd'Hiv."

All the boxers are leaving France. Paolino is going to B. A. There is a troupe in Mexico; Mons. See is taking Laffineur and several others to Australia, and expects to stop in the States on his way home. Bretonnel just arrived in New York. Francis Charles will soon sail. And our old friend, Descamps, is exporting three or four.

Watch Francis Charles!

None of the French boys have a chance with the American boxers—they are outclassed. But look out for Francis Charles. He may prove a surprise.

114 Netsters to Compete for the Illinois Title

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Chicago, June 27.—One hundred and fourteen tennis players, many of them national and international stars, open play tomorrow at the Skokie Country club for the famous Skokie bowl, emblematic of the Illinois state tennis championship.

Although America's premier players, Bill Tilden, Little Bill Johnston, Vincent Richards and Howard Kinsey and Manuel Alonzo, the Spaniard, are not entered, the tournament promises to be closely contested, as no one player stands out as a favorite for the title.

St. Louis Fans Win Pop Bottle Throwing Title

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

St. Louis, June 27.—The Cubs won the second game of a doubleheader here today, 5 to 0, but almost won it by forfeit when, in the ninth inning, the crowd broke into a riot and showered the field with thousands of pop bottles. The riot started when Umpire Moran ruled that "Sparky" Adams was safe at first base, after the entire throng had seen him pop up to Rogers Hornsby. Moran declared him safe, because the catcher had interferred with Adams as he started to run. Of course, the crowd didn't see the interference and immediately the riot began and the pop bottles started flying.

Fortunately, no one was hit, but the shower was so heavy that ball players either took refuge in the middle of the field, out of range, or ducked under cover in the dugout. It took at least 15 minutes for a squad of groundkeepers to clear the field of the bottles and cushions, too, which had rained from the mob.

Finally order was restored and the game was finished, but the event stamps St. Louis fans as undisputed bottle throwing champions of baseball. Some three years ago a similar bottle shower took place when the Yanks were playing the Browns and "Whitey" Witt, of the New York club, was struck on the head by a flying bottle and laid up in the hospital for weeks.

Some years before that Umpire Billy Evans was almost killed by a bottle thrown by a St. Louis fan.

The Cards won the first game, 3 to 2.

Score Three in Eighth to Beat Cleveland by 5-4 Score.

Detroit, June 27.—(AP)—Scoring three runs in the eighth, after trailing since the third inning, Detroit defeated Cleveland, 5 to 4, today to register its seventh consecutive victory. Properly inserted singles by Neun, O'Rourke and Warner, together with two bases on balls, were Sherrod Smith's undoing in that final Tiger time at bat.

Cliff Lee, Cleveland catcher, was spiked when Manush slid home with the winning run, and had to be carried from the field. Score:
