Pirates Earn Even Break in Series with Giants

KREMER ALLOWS ONLY FOUR HITS

Rallies in Sixth and Eighth Innings Win for Champions.

Pittsburgh, July 15.—(AP)—The Pirates earned an even break in their four-game series with the Giants by winning the final today, 3 to 0. Ray Kremer was responsible for the whitewashing, giving out but four singles. Greenfield had allowed but one hit until the sixth, when singles by Smith and Rawlings and a double by Waner brought two runs. A two-bagger by Smith and Rawlings' single netted the other run in the eighth. Score:

Early Club to Oppose Yards This Afternoon

The Early, Ia., club, with "Lefty" Mack on the mound, will oppose the Sioux City Stock Yards club at Stock Yards park this afternoon. Mack is the youngster who pitched so sensationally throughout the spring for the Early high school baseball club, which was runnerup in the state tournament this year.

"Barney" Sheehan probably will do the pitching for the Stock Yards. Pete Knudsen will be out of the lineup for a week and Dick Cleveland will move back to third base. Niggeling taking Cleveland's place at shortstop. Niggeling is the Merrill shortstop and one of the best hitters in semi-pro circles.

This afternoon's contest will start at 3:30 o'clock. LeMars will play the Yards club here tomorrow.

YARDS NINE DOWNS HARTINGTON CLUB BY 11 TO 2 COUNT

The Sioux City Stock Yards defeated Hartington at Hartington Thursday afternoon by a score of 11 to 2. The "Cowboys" had their hitting clothes on and pounded both Hartington pitchers rather freely. Luedke started, but was relieved in the sixth inning after the Yards club had counted four runs on a fifth inning rally.

Art Hinkley was the hitting star of the day, collecting a homer, a triple and a single. "Babe" Jenny, Yards pitcher, is a "native son" of Hartington and the fans demanded that he pitch, so he relieved Collins in the closing innings. The biggest weekday crowd of the season saw the game. Score:

TRACK OWNERS IN ILLINOIS FACE A BIG TURF BATTLE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Chicago, July 15.—Prospects for a turf war appeared today with the announcement that Matt Winn, owner of the new Lincoln fields and the old Hawthorne racetrack, has sold the Hawthorne property to John C. Schanck, Thomas McHale and Charles Krutchkoff, and that they would put on a fall race meet there.

This brought immediate protest from Clifford Trimble, general manager of the Aurora, Ill., racetrack, who announced he would hold his fall meet as advertised—September 16 to October 2—and that he will not permit Exposition park to be crowded off the map by Chicago promoters.

At a meeting between race magnates in June dates for the Chicago district were agreed upon and Trimble was given the 15 days in the fall. On this pledge he has been busy ever since, enlarging stable room and improving the grandstand and grounds. Matt Winn was present at the June meeting and agreed to the dates. Now Trimble cannot understand how the Hawthorne course should have been sold without a clause preventing a clash between its dates and those at Aurora. He maintains that Winn is a man of his word and that he will see to it that Hawthorne does not conflict with Aurora.

DOTT IS WINNER OF FINAL MATCH FOR WHITE CUP

R. M. Dott defeated Dr. C. H. Bliss, 3 and 2, in the final match of the White cup tournament at the Sioux City Boat club Thursday. The trophy was donated by J. M. Members of the various women's golf organizations at the club compete weekly for a point on this trophy.

While all of the qualifying scores for the club tournament have not been received as yet, it appears certain that the 77 turned in by B. Bichler will give him medal honors. Members have until Sunday to qualify.

TITLE SCRAP TO BE HELD TONIGHT

Rain Causes Promoter to Postpone Battle 24 Hours.

By Westbrook Pegler.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

New York, July 15.—The great Berlenbach-Delaney fight for the light-heavyweight championship of the world resulted in a thrilling postponement at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon at which hour the New York sky, having produced all of the standard varieties of rain during the day, was exerting itself to produce something unique and big and fine in this line.

The fight was deferred until Friday night.

It was difficult to see just what the sky could hope to achieve in the way of novel effects after such a day's repertoire, unless it should rain Bulgarian buttermilk or alphabet soup. This much was certain, however, that it was raining and that so far as Humbert Fugazy, the promoter of the fight, was concerned, it was not raining violets.

Singletooth Makes Announcement.

It was Mr. Singletooth Abe Yeager, the Ivy Lee of the local prize fight profession, who made the announcement after Mr. Fugazy had made the decision. This was the second important announcement that Singletooth Yeager has made in his career. His front one, pronounced several years ago when someone asked him how he Fletcherized his provisions with only one tooth, was as follows:

"You don't have to chew Scotch."

This afternoon there was a line of sincere customers a block long at Ebbets field, the estate of the Brooklyn Dodgers, when Fugazy, with a gloomy glance out of the window of his sky high office in the Woolworth tower, decided that he couldn't take their money until a more favorable time. The customers had been standing there for hours, a patient, turtle necked file of men with their chins drawn down into their collars, waiting to buy tickets for the $3 seats in the bleachers. Half a dozen of those weatherproof individuals who are always sloshing around in the goo outside the stadium when big fights, football games and horse races are on were creeping up and down the line trying to sell hot dogs and 50-cent opera glasses without which latter they said it would be impossible to see the fighters from the bleachers.

Delaney Drawn Pretty Fine.

Berlenbach and Delaney had weighed in earlier in the afternoon, and although Delaney looked sound and strong, the scales intimated that he had drawn himself finer than he need have. Brighteyes, as Berlenbach calls him, was down to 166½ pounds, which was 8½ pounds below the figure that he had to make to save his forfeit and figure in the championship. Berlenbach had dried out during the 24 hours preceding the appointment with boxing commissioners and weighed just 174¼.

They will not have to make weight again, however, so when Berly goes into the ring he may be a few pounds above the actual limit of the class that he dominates for the time being. Delaney may take the opportunity to enlarge himself by sparring with the menu at some hospitable chophouse, but it is too late for him to regain the substance that he drained away in perspiration in the early stages of his training in an indoor gymnasium.

Delaney went to Philadelphia Jack O'Brien's gymnasium in the convert charge region of Broadway for an evening workout after the fight had been postponed. Berlenbach mapped out a training schedule of eight hours' work on the pillow. In the afternoon, he took a few hours' light exercise blowing wind through his saxophone to keep his breathing in shape.

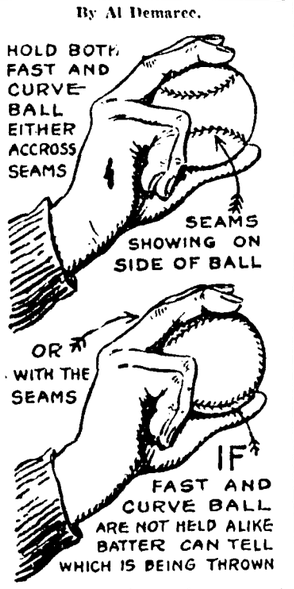
HURLERS TIP OFF PITCH BY MANNER OF GRASPING BALL

By Al Demaree.



Many pitchers betray by some subconscious little mannerism, or way they grasp the baseball for their fast ball, curve or change of pace just what they are going to deliver to the batter.

More batters are tipped off by this on just what type of ball is coming than by signs that are stolen from the catcher by coachers and other methods.

Some pitchers grasp their fast ball across the seams and their curve ball with the seams. A smart coacher like "Chief" Bender, of the White Sox, can tip off the batter on every ball pitched.

Bender at one time used a word sign to signal the batter. Any sentence including "crack it" denoted a fast ball was being delivered.

If he shouted "make it be good," the batter knew a curve ball was coming and was set for it.

And he could tell when a saliva artist was throwing his "spitter" by watching the vibration of the peak of his cap when he was applying the saliva.

McLaughlin and Cobb Turn in Great Cards

Carleton McLaughlin, who will enter the western amateur tournament at White Bear Yacht club next week, had a score of 68 on the Sioux City Country club course Thursday afternoon. It was the best score ever made by McLaughlin and ties the former course record held jointly by Rudy Knepper, Lee Herron, Mike Shearman and Walter Hagen. Knepper made a new record last summer when he shot the 18 holes in 65 strokes.

Dr. E. C. Cobb came within a single stroke of tying the record for the upper nine when he shot a 32. Mike Shearman and Ted Ray hold the record for this course, each of them having made it in 31. Dr. Cobb missed a 10-foot putt on No. 9 by a hair for a 34.

Both cards follow:

McLaughlin—
Out ..... 334 344 544—33
In ..... 143 346 443—35 68
Dr. E. C. Cobb—
Out ..... 433 443 344—32

It is probable that Lee Herron will be another Sioux City representative in the Western amateur. Herron was late in sending in his entry and if it is accepted he says he will compete. Rudy Knepper has entered the tournament, but it is not known whether he will represent the Sioux City Country club or the Chicago club of which he is a member.

Scores of the visiting players will be considered in awarding a point on the Hvistendahl trophy, just the same as if they were playing on their own course. Country club golfers will compete also for a point on the Moore Clothing trophy.

AL STRONG AND MRS. M'KEE WIN MIXED FOURSOME

The Black Sox have only one game scheduled for next week, July 23. They are anxious to schedule games for the remaining days.
