

THE GO-DEVILS IN BIG SERIES.

Manager Grubbs Will Try to Enter His Team in Kansas City Tourney.

Manager Grubbs said today that he was going to make every effort to take the Go-Devils to Kansas City next Sunday and Monday to enter the western elimination games for the world's series between negro ball clubs. If he is sure of the trip he will select his players tomorrow or Wednesday.

Negro baseball teams which are scheduled to appear in the western division elimination games at Association park next Sunday and Labor Day have begun to strengthen their personnel. "Bud" Phillips, manager of the St. Joseph Giants, is negotiating with John Donaldson, considered the crack negro pitcher of America, and it is expected that Donaldson will sign with him. "Jack" Johnson, the Topeka first baseman, also is among the players who will take part. Elimination games also will be played in St. Louis, Indianapolis and Chicago. The world's series for negro teams will be played in Chicago in October between the clubs taking part in the elimination tourneys.

The St. Louis Giants will play the Kansas City, Kas., Giants in next Sunday's double header. The second contest will be between the Lexington Tigers and the Royal Americans. In the morning game, Labor day the Iola Go-Devils will play the Topeka Giants. A double header will be staged in the afternoon Labor day. The first contest will be between the winners of Sunday's games. The second will be contested by the winner of the first game and the winning club in the morning game. The final winner will represent Kansas City at the Chicago games.
