FREYMANN STRIKES OUT 8 MEN BUT SEIBERT HITS SPHERE FOR A HOME RUN

Le Mars lost in a good exhibition of baseball to the All-Nations on Monday with a score of 7 to 5. Freymann was on the mound for the locals and struck out eight men, which was good for a team of sluggers like the All-Nations. A rally in the eighth inning by Le Mars tallied four scores but not enough to defeat the visitors.

White, the small right fielder of the colored boys, was the first man on the batting list. He was thrown out at first on an infield hit. The next batter drew a base on balls and scored on a three-base hit by Cully. Donaldson, the star pitcher, struck out three times at five times at bat. The All-Nations tallied two scores in the first inning.

Osborne, the first Le Mars batter, fanned out, and Kellen, next up to the platter, waved at three pitched balls and Faber sent a pop fly to the first baseman. This retired the side.

A two-base hit, a base on balls and a fly to left field accounted for the All-Nations for one run in the first of the second. The locals scored in the last of the second on a home-run hit by Seibert. The pill sailed high over the left field fence. The side was retired on two strike-outs and a fly to short stop.

The All-Nations did not score until the fifth inning when they tallied a score on a double and a single.

The eighth inning was the big rally for the local team. Osborne, the first man up, hit a double, Kellen drew a base on balls, Faber hit a single and "Tuffy" Striegel hit the ball into the right field fence for a triple. If Striegel's hit had been two feet higher it would have cleared the fence. Four men crossed the plate on this doings.

The colored boys added three more scores to their total in the eighth inning on a home run, single, double, and felder's choice. The final score ended 7 to 5 for the All-Nations.
