

The largest crowd of baseball fans ever attracted in this part of the state was in evidence in Crosby last Sunday. About 2500 people were here, from towns within a radius of 75 miles to witness the double header baseball event, the main attraction being the game with the much heralded All Nation aggregation. The first game Crosby vs. Ambrose was a good game in spots, with the visitors having an edge the best of it. The exhibition game with the All Nations demonstrated to the large crowd that it was a ball team. Donaldson the famous colored pitcher was on the mound three innings and one hit was garnered off his delivery. The Crosby boys were in fit form with "Horsehoe" Larson on the Mound. The game resulted in Crosby winning with the score 7-8.

Game played June 27, 1915 at Crosby, ND
