

HAVANA CLOSES MOST SUCCESSFUL SEASON

Havana, N. D., July 21.—Havana closed the most successful baseball season known to this city last Sunday, when they were defeated by the All Nations by a score of 8 to 3. Donaldson pitched for the All Nations, while Parks was on the mound for the locals. Seven hits were secured off Donaldson, including a double and a triple.

Parks and Pollock secured two hits each, while Moberg, Leach and Dean got one each.

Game played July 18, 1915 at Havana, ND
