The All Nations, with six Kansas City boys in the lineup, easily defeated the All Stars, gotten together by Joo Dear, yesterday afternoon at Association Park, by a 11 to 2 score. John Donaldson, the great negro pitcher, worked for the Nations and looked good.		5 Sent Red Pins Whi Blue Car
The visitors started scoring in the first inning, while the All Stars got their only tallies in the third frame on a hairline decision at first base. Keith Dancy, first baseman for the visitors, dislocated his knee when he slid into second base in the third inning.
