

The L. A. White Sox were defeated yesterday afternoon at Vernon by the Pacific Electric ball club, 7 to 1. Harry Stewart pitched splendid ball for the winners, holding the colored nine to five hits. The score:

P. E. Club	7	7	1
L. A. White Sox	1	5	8

Stewart and McKeene, Mooney, Washington and Hyland.

Game played April 8, 1917 at Los Angeles, CA