

Simpson Sluggers almost knocked the All Nations off the map in their first game of the two-day series for the benefit of Company M at Oakdale park, Tuesday. The Kansans brought four-ply wallops in their bat bags and Schmelzers of various nationalities were running like Jackrabbits in the three gardens. The result of continued offensive and burn defensive on the part of Simpson and the All Nations respectively was 9 to 3 in favor of the Jayhawks. The same teams played this afternoon.

Simpson	3	0	6	0	0	0	0	3	0	—12
Schmelzers	0	0	0	0	2	0	0	0	0	—2
Batteries:	Simpson—Burwell and
Nisby	Schmelzers—Yendez and
Coleman	Umpire—Quigley

Games played August 28, 1917 at Salina, KS