

GIANTS MAP TRIP OF 10,000 MILES

Rube Foster has mapped out a 10,000 mile spring trip for his made-over American Giants, one of the greatest Colored ball teams now in the country. They left for Palm Beach, Florida, Tuesday, March 3, and after a stay there of a week they will go direct to California, thence up through Oregon, Washington, British Columbia, Montana, Idaho and North Dakota, returning to Chicago on April 26.

Foster is taking with him "Cyclone Joe" Williams, Lindsay, Wickware, Daugherty, Donaldson and Foster, pitchers; Petway and Booker, catchers; J. and B. Taylor, Lloyd and Monroe, infielders; Hill, Duncan and Gans, outfielders, with Jesse Barber as utility.

Foster's new men are Lloyd, Gans,
Williams and Donaldson.
