

Olympic Field, Sept. 6.—Last Sunday at Olympic field the Lincoln Giants defeated the Royal Giants in two of the finest contested games seen in Harlem this season by the scores of 3 to 2 and 4 to 3. Cyclone Joe Williams, without a doubt the best pitcher in the East, was in fine form and had his share in the winning of both games. By winning both games the Lincolns wiped out the two-game advantage held by the Royals.
