

At Dexter Park, L. I., Sunday, Oct. 13, the Bushwicks robbed the Royal Giants of both games. The players seemed to have a touch of influenza or something, while the Bushwicks were pulling off all kinds of exhibition stunts. Kelleher pitched scientific baseball throughout the entire game, Brooks doing the same for the Royals, but had poor support. Both pitchers demonstrated fine work. The Bushwicks took both games, first 8 to 2, second 2 to 0.
