

No-Hit Contest for Andy Graves

The Armours in their initial appearance this season copped both ends of a double-header from the All Nations at Rourke park yesterday afternoon. They won the first game, 2 to 0, and the second, 2 to 1.

Andy Graves, veteran hurler, pitched a no-run no-hit game in the first game. None of the All Nation players reached second, and but three reached first. Graves was given good support by his teammates, only two errors being marked against them.

The Armours began scoring in the first inning, when Williams doubled, Collins followed with a single, but Williams was out at third; Collins stole third and scored on an error by Osbern.

They scored again in the third, when Graves walked, went to second on Williams' sacrifice and scored on Collins' hit.

The All Nations came back strong in the second game and scored in the first inning on a single by Wambum and a double by Donaldson.

The Armours annexed their two tallies in the fourth. Collins led off with a single, stole second and went to third on an error, and scored on Corcoran's hard grounder to Osbern, who muffed it. Corcoran went to second on Collins' sacrifice. Devine and Eektimier walked, filling the bases. Vernon flied out and Corcoran scored on Dyke's hit. Collins prevented a score in the ninth inning, when he made a spectacular catch of Balley's long fly.
