

STORZ TRIUMPHS TURN TABLES ON ALL-NATIONS

In Yesterday's Game at Rourke's Park Mixed Aggregation Was Blanked.

Harry Welch Brought in Two Runs for Brewers by Good Stick Work.

The Storz Triumphs turned the tables on the All-Nations in Sunday's game and blanked the visitors with the muchly touted Donaldson on the hill. Score, 3, to 0.

Harry Welch was solely responsible for the two tallies that the Brewers secured. On both occasions, with Durkee resting on the second sack, H. John produced the needed wallop, much to the chagrin of the darky twirler.

Olson was in great form. Although he was found for enough hits to win an ordinary game, the youthful phenom was invincible during perilous occasions. Also he was aided by three cleverly executed double plays.

The negro twirler was found for a run in the opening round. Graham hit safe, was forced at second by Durkee. The "speed boy" swiped second while Drummy was breezing the air. Welch drove a screaming double to right and Durkee registered.

The All-Nations filled the sacks in their half of the second with two down, but Hull boosted a fly to Graham.

Donaldson fanned six in a row, beginning with the second. Welch appeared in the fourth and perpetrated his second double.

The visitors filled the bases again in their half of the sixth, but Olson fanned the negro twirler and grabbed Cablmes' bounder, tossing him out at first.

Bradford's gang scored another in the sixth when Welch's single brought Durkee across. With two gone in the ninth, Cabines singled, but Olson closed the pastime by whiffing Schoutze. Carrie, the female first sacker, was taken sick after the close of Saturday's game and was forced to disappoint her numerous admirers in the stands. Score:
