
JEFFRIES TOO STRONG FOR ALL NATIONS.

A. B. C. Southpaw Has Visitors at Mercy and Taylor's Club Wins by 5-to-1 Count — Chinese Team Here Sunday.

Jeffries's masterly pitching was too much for the All-Nations Tuesday at Federal Park and Taylor's A. B. C.s won the last contest, 5 to 1. The local southpaw had the Nations completely at his mercy throughout the game. The A. B. C.s made their hits count, the necessary bingle coming at the right time. Brown, for the locals, clouted out a home run. Wilkinson, for the visitors, was unsteady, issuing six passes and hitting Clark.

Both clubs played good ball in the field, the fast work of the Nations keeping the score down. DeMoss and Clark, for the A. B. C.s, did sensational work, the former handling eleven chances without a misplay, while the latter took care of six, erring on a hard chance.

The Chinese club of Hawaii will play the A. B. C.s a double-header at Federal Park Sunday.

The Orientals were here early in the summer and were barely beaten by the colored stars. After playing many college nines and the leading independent teams of the country the Chinese are on their way back to the Pacific coast, whence they will sail for Hawaii late in the fall.

Touring from California to Maine this club established an enviable record by winning more than 100 games out of 110 played. Four pitchers are carried by the team, one of them, Inman, being an American, who is coach of the aggregation. Inman takes his turn on the mound against independent teams. Apou, Bo and Ako are the other hurlers. Shortstop Ayou is manager of the aggregation. The Chinese will have their full strength here Sunday and the double-header is expected to provide some interesting baseball.

Monday's game was almost a repetition of the other two, the All-Nations pouncing on the opposing twirler for a bunch of runs in one inning. Ben Taylor held them well till the fifth, when three hits netted the visitors two runs, and in the sixth Taylor was obliged to yank his brother because he "blew." Blew is right. Four hits in a row put across three more runs, and it was enough to keep the Bullmonsters from winning. The fielding of Hernandez, Mendez and Clark were the features of the game. J. Taylor's three-base hit in the second sent the Indianapolis team in the lead, which they held till the All-Nations jumped on Taylor in the fifth and sixth innings.
