

A large and enthusiastic crowd was out at Osborne yesterday to see the ball game between Beloit's Leaguers and the Kansas City Monarchs, which was won by Beloit, 3 to 1. Big Tom Blodgett was Beloit's choice for mound work, while John Donaldson, the noted colored pitcher, opposed him. Blodgett had all the best of the bout, and had excellent support. Dimond played at first base, while Sutton, a new addition from Ensign, Kansas, played at short-stop. Walker took a field position.

The game was a fast one, and Beloit came from behind, and won out after the Monarchs had scored in the first inning.
