
THE MONARCHS WERE HITTING.

St. Louis Pitchers Were Bumped Hard in 12 to 8 Game.

The Monarchs pounded three St. Louis hurlers to all corners of the lot in the opening game of the series at Association Park yesterday, winning 12 to 8.

Luther, who started for the Giants, lasted only a short time, Pritchett and McNair, the first two men up, slamming out doubles. Carr replaced Luther and was hit freely, being jerked in favor of Piner in the third.

Babe Ruth, who did the flinging for the Monarchs was never in danger and kept the visitors' bases well scattered.

The Monarchs garnered enough runs in the opening frame to clinch down the victory, a trio of base hooks netting as many counters. Another run was added in the second round, while the locals staged an attack on Piner in the fourth which netted five tallies. Two more markers were collected in the seventh and eighth innings.

The visitors scored their first run in the fourth when Starks tripled to center and went home on Carr's double of Pendleton's throw to third. A triple by Jackson and a sacrifice fly by Weiden in the final round gave the visitors their other run. Pendleton will do the hurling for the Monarchs in the second game of the series this afternoon, while Lyons, the speed ball merchant of the Negro national league, will take the firing line for the visitors.
