The A. H. C's came back Monday and took the game away from the Monarchs at the close rating of 5 to 1. This fellow McClure, from Texas, must be some pipkin to hold the K. C. boys down to such straits. It doesn't read natural, thats all. Crawford pitched a nice even game for the Monarchs. He struck out four men while Jeffries only caused 1 to whiff the air. McClure relieved Jeffries in the ninth when there were two on base and none out, and won out for the locals.

The score by innings:

Monarchs	2	1	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0—4
A. H. C's.	0	0	3	0	0	0	0	0	1	1—5

Batteries—Crawford and Ray; Williams, Jeffries, McClure and Mackey.

Game played July 19, 1920 at Detroit, MI.
