

Kansas City, Mo., April 29.—The Kansas City Monarchs opened the local baseball season here Sunday afternoon playing an exhibition game against the fast Nebraska Sioux Indians, defeating them by the score of 9 to 3. Donaldson and Lefty Smith did the twirling for Wilkerson's tribe and Big Chief Buffalo was on the mound for the "Injuns." The hitting of John Donaldson, Carr and King was responsible for the locals' victory. The Kansas City team has been greatly strengthened this year with the addition of the following men: Pullen, Foreman, Potter, catchers; Hamilton, pitcher; Blatner, Fagen and Hawkins, infielders; King and McAllister, outfielders.

The first league game of the season will be played Saturday at the American Association park against the St. Louis Giants with Charleston in their lineup. A monster street parade will be held, headed by the Pythian band and the members of the local branch of the National Business Men's League.

Game played April 24, 1921 at Kansas City, MO.
