

The Monarchs were defeated, 11 to 1, by St. Louis, Tuesday, in the last of the league games. Donaldson, who started for the home team, played well until the seventh inning, when he weakened. The Monarchs rallied in the eighth, but the visitors came back in the final chapter and made seven runs.

Game played September 27, 1921 at Kansas City, MO.