

After scoring a 5 to 1 loss in the first inning, the Monarchs were saved out of a victory Wednesday, because this nation, the Cincinnati Cubs have also risen while the Monarchs were able to get only an air of additional markers to their total during the remainder of the game.

Linder, who started on the mound for the Monarchs, weakened in the third and was replaced by Bell, whose career on the hilltop was abbreviated, and one-third innings being his limit. Mendes, who finished the game, hurled steady ball, but his mates were unable to connect safely with the hooks and headers of Silva, who replaced Pedrosa on the rubber for the visitors, the latter being bumped hard in the initial round.

The score by innings:

Cincinnati	121	101	110	—0
Monarchs	500	600	100	—1

Game played June 14, 1922 at Kansas City, MO