

The "All Nations" and Willow Lakes played ball on the local diamond Wednesday afternoon. Resulting in a victory for Kansas City. The Kansas City team has been touring the northwest and are said to be the strongest aggregation of ball tossers that can be found. If it wasn't for their color the pitcher and catcher would be drawing a salary in six figures in one of the major leagues. Willow Lakes team did well in holding them down to an 8 to 1 score.

Game played August 2, 1922 at Willow Lakes, SD
