

The All Nations ball team, one of the best known ball teams in South Dakota who tour the state every year, played a game of ball with the White salaried team here Tuesday afternoon. Of course the All Nations had control of the situation at all times and no doubt could have made the score what they desired, the game ended in a victory for them 8 to 7. White played a series of four games with the All Nations, losing all.

Game played July 31, 1923 at Brookings, SD
