

X The base ball game between the Pipestone Black Sox and the Lismore Gophers which was played at Pipestone Wednesday, resulted in a forfeit game to Lismore by a 9 to 0 score. The Black Sox refused to play at the end of the seventh inning when the score stood 2 to 1 in favor of Lismore. With the bases loaded and two men out, one of their batters stepped into a pitch ball which naturally hit him, and after being called out by the umpire refused to continue the game. The Black Sox never did have a ball team and are the poorest bunch of sports in a ball game that can be found anywhere.

Game played August 4, 1926 at Pipestone, MN
