

Ball Team Here—The American All

Nations Ball Club traveling about the country in their private car, spent the night here, having come from Anita where they were defeated yesterday in a ten inning game by a score of 4 to 3. The game was a good one, but two errors being made by each team. The team went up to Exira this morning for a game there today. The team is owned by L. Wilkinson, a brother of Ray Wilkinson, a photographer who works for Egbert. Mr. Wilkinson and wife travel with the team, having private apartments in the special car. Mr. Wilkinson was formerly a fast ball player himself but he does not play with the team now.

The Atlantic News-Telegraph, Atlantic, IA
Friday, May 10, 1912, Page 5, Columns 1 and 2