
The fair Ontonagon, N.D., professional ball team opposed the colored House of David players, of Havana, Cuba, and in a brilliant game forced the whiskered colored boys to an extra inning before losing by a 0-3 score. This was the colored House of David's first Canadian appearance, and they showed a lot of clever baseball, as also did the hard fighting Ontonagon team.

The work was fairly fast but steady.

Game played June 25, 1929 at Pilot Mound, MB
