

The House of David bearded nine took a double-header from the Cuban Giants in exhibition games played at Hillhurst Park on Wednesday, when they captured the first verdict by a count of 10 to 7 and the evening engagement 11 to 10.

The opening game was featured with heavy clouting by the Benton Harbor club, and they took the contest easily with their heavy artillery. Heckman, left fielder, of the House of David, landed five hits in five times at bat.

A ninth inning rally was staged by the Cubans in the second game, which fell one run short of tying up the engagement. The third game of the series will be played Thursday night at Hillhurst park, starting at 6:15.
