

THE ST. CLOUD RAMBLERS, or what have you, were downed by a 4 to 1 count at Hand's park yesterday afternoon in a thrilling diamond battle. With a side wager of fifty simoleons at stake, the veteran John Donaldson went on the firing line for his All Stars and gave the Ramblers but five safe blows during the setto. John had the visitors blanked until two were out in the eighth frame. A double and a single to left, coupled with Hurley McNair's high peg to the plate gave the Ramblers their only count. The

Game played June 12, 1932 at Fairmont, MN