

|                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                            |
|----------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------|
| thersbro-beatwillacevalin- | <hr/> LEXINGTON DEFEATS GLASGOWSUNDAY <hr/> John Donaldson's All Stars were defeated in Lexington Sunday afternoon by the colored team in that place by a score of 7 to 8. Williams hurled for John's team, and twelve innings were played before the Lexington team could cross the plate for the winning score. <hr/> | J.F.misScbo.itkidHothe |
|----------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------|

Game played September 24, 1933 at Lexington, MO