

—The Glasgow Hannaca Blues and the Marshall team, both composed of colored boys, met in Rhea's park Sunday afternoon and the Blues fairly "ate up" their opponents. The score at the close stood 10 to 2 in favor of the Glasgow Blues. On the previous Sunday the two teams played at Marshall, the game ending in a rain with the score 3 to 3.

Game played May 24, 1908 at Glasgow, MO