

H. OF D. BEATS GIANTS IN HOLIDAY TWIN BILL

LOCALS TIE UP
SERIES BY 5-2
AND 3-2 WINS

Pallas Hurls Six-Hitter;
Wagner Wins 2nd Game;
Lifes Here Sunday

BY NORT BASER

Eddie Deal's House of David ball club jumped on Joe Green's Giants in both ends of a doubleheader at the Colony park yesterday afternoon, giving the Chicagoans all the 4th of July fireworks they wanted in 5-2 and 3-2 victories. The latter game was limited to five innings by agreement, since only the one game had been scheduled. Some 600 fans watched the fun which squared the series at three games apiece.

Big Harvey Pallas turned in a splendid six-hitter in the first regular length game, both runs against him being unearned. Eric Wagner won the abbreviated after-piece on seven-hit twirling, giving the visitors both of their tallies in the first inning before he really got going.

Score Four Runs In 1st

The Colony nine lost little time in giving Haller Pallas a margin to work upon in the first game. In the first inning Adams walked and Pugh, Ueck and Pallas all singled in a spree that netted four runs. The fifth and last run for the locals came in the second inning when Anderson was safe on an error by the shortstop and scored on Pugh's hit.

In the opening half of the first inning, Green's Giants scored a run when Smith walked, advanced on a putout and scored on an error at second. From then on the game went at a rapid clip, the Giants getting their second run in the fifth when Smith singled and scored later on Deal's bad throw to second base.

The first game was featured by both teams picking men off the bases. The House of David had seven men picked off.

Eric Wagner got off to a bad start in the second game as the first two batters singled, Smith scoring Rhodes was then safe on a fielder's choice as Hall was caught at third base. Huff singled to score Huff. In the third inning Wagner fielded Huff's bunt and tossed to the plate to cut off Hall who had tripled shortly before. Ueck's throw after a catch caught Huff at the plate in this same inning.

Pull Double Steal

Deal's club tied the score in the last of the second as Bohn tripled and scored on Deal's single. Dalager then beat out a hit. Deal stole third and on the next pitch Dalager started a double steal which ended with Deal scoring and Dalager on second.

The winning run came in the fourth as Deal, Selby and Wagner singled to load the bases and the shortstop erred on Adams' batted ball with two out to let Deal score.

Sunday starting at 1:30 the Colony nine will play the Conservative Lifes of South Bend in a double-header, both being Michiana league games. The locals are undefeated in league play.
