

Union Giants Trim Donaldson

"Big Smoke" John Donaldson, the second Walter Johnson was defeated by the Chicago Union Giants at the Western league park yesterday afternoon by the score of 5 to 3. The biggest crowd of the year packed the stand to see Donaldson and his teammate, Mendez in action.

The big smoke had his full assortment of curves and speed but the inability of the backstop to hold him up was the cause of his downfall. Nine Giants went out via the strikeout route against Donaldson.

The playing of Mendez the young Cuban was easily the feature of the game. He pulling off sensational stops and pegs, and hit the pellet for a home run and a double.

Both teams hit the ball hard, the All Nations had one the better in base hits, but their cracked support in the first three innings put Donaldson in the hole, or the "mighty" smoke might have won.
